Gemini was the first book I read of Penelope Wards' and it moved me in so many ways. At times I was publicly crying, and other times publicly laughing. The characters are real, and their story is believable. I thoroughly enjoyed Gemini, and highly recommend this and all other stories by Penelope Ward (Gemini 2, Skylar, step brother dearest).

Gemini could have been easily 4 or even 4.5 star for me if it wasn't for the pace. If you cut Gemini down by 30%, it would have been a fantastic read. I'm not a fan of Penelope Ward's style of writing. I find it very drawn out and dragging. The story line and plot was excellent, but it took forever to get to any points.

Gemini (Gemini, book 1) by Penelope Ward

From Vi Keeland and Penelope Ward is The Christmas Pact. This is a novella that was originally an Audible exclusive but as of this month it is available in KU. I loved this and I have been a fan of this author duo for a while now. This book was cute and funny following Riley Kennedy and Kennedy Riley (yes really) as their paths cross.
