What are the first four notes of Beethoven's Fifth ...

The four notes heard at the beginning of Beethoven's Fifth Symphony are so familiar that everyone, even non-classical music listeners, knows the work. Such familiarity makes us forget just how radically challenging this music sounded when it was first performed on 22 December 1808 in the Theater an der Wien in Vienna, part of what turned out to be a concert lasting over four hours, in a poorly heated concert hall.
